

3. Proverbs 31:10-31 [long form] OT

A reading from the Book of Proverbs

When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls. Her husband, entrusting his heart to her, has an unfailing prize. She brings him good, and not evil, all the days of her life.

She obtains wool and flax and makes cloth with skillful hands.

She rises while it is still night, and distributes food to her household. She is girt about with strength, and sturdy are her arms.

She enjoys the success of her dealings; at night her lamp is undimmed.

She reaches out her hands to the poor, and extends her arms to the needy.

She fears not the snow for her household, all her charges are doubly clothed.

Her husband is prominent at the city gates as he sits with the elders of the land.

She is clothed with strength and dignity, and she laughs at the days to come.

She opens her mouth in wisdom, and on her tongue is kindly counsel.

Her children rise up and praise her; her husband, too, extols her; “Many are the women of proven worth, but you have excelled them all.”

Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting;

The woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.

Give her reward of her labors, and let her works praise her at the city gates.
