

5. Ecclesiastes 3:1-11 OT

A reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes

There is a time for everything under heaven. There is an appointed time for everything, And a time for every affair under the heavens.

A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant, and time to uproot the plant.

A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to tear down, and a time to build.

A time to weep, and a time to laugh. A time to mourn, and a time to dance.

A time to scatter stones, and a time to gather them;
A time to embrace, and a time to be far from embraces.

A time to seek, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away.

A time to rend, and a time to sew;
A time to be silent, and a time to speak.

A time to love, and time to hate;
A time of war, and a time of peace.

What advantage has the worker from his toil? I have considered the task which God has appointed us to be busied about. He has made everything appropriate to its time, and has put the timeless into their hearts, without our ever discovering, from beginning to end, the work which God has done.
